More infos

Within a short walk from the village, a lovely period house is for sale.

The house spans two floors, plus a spacious underground cellar. The overall condition of the house is very good, with only minor work needed. The roof has been completely rebuilt recently. The house features double-glazed windows throughout. There are two very spacious garages or storage rooms.

Ground floor: entrance, lounge, dining room with fireplace, kitchenette, small bathroom, access to the underground cellar, and a charming sitting room with original flooring and fireplace. Upstairs: three bedrooms, a long corridor, a bathroom, and a spacious former hayloft.

The courtyard in front of the house is paved with stones and has two gated car entrances.
